1)

3:30 PM - GRADUATE SCHOOL FAIR - WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10

Where: Cotter Union

When: 3:30 pm - 5:00 pm

Don't miss this opportunity to talk informally with over 90 graduate and professional school admissions representatives. Graduate school representation will vary in size, program specialties, and geographic locations. Information on programs relating to arts and sciences, law, public policy, international affairs, business, medicine, and social services will be available. Visit www.colby.edu/career.serv for details.

WORKSHOP - FINDING A JOB IN...

-TEACHING WITHOUT CERTIFICATION (rescheduled)

Monday, October 15, 4:00 pm, Diamond 110

A liberal arts education has traditionally been excellent preparation for teaching, even if you do not plan to complete certification requirements. In addition to discussing opportunities in private schools, we will explore options in alternative public schools, teaching abroad and other fields that develop teaching skills.

INTERNSHIP INFORMATION MEETINGS

Get started on your internship plans by attending an Internship Information Meeting. Learn about strategies for securing the internship you want and be introduced to the resources that can help you make it happen. Every Friday afternoon at 1:00 in the Career Services Library.

4)

PUBLIC POLICY AND INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS JUNIOR SUMMER INSTITUTES

For college juniors, there are several summer institutes that focus on both domestic policy and international relations. This national consortium of top public policy and international affairs graduate schools prepare college juniors for advanced degrees and careers serving the public good. Information about all such programs can be found through the following university web sites:

PPIA Junior Summer Institute at UC, Berkeley

BENNINGTON COLLEGE PREMEDICAL AND MA IN TEACHING PROGRAMS - INFORMATION SESSION

Friday, October 12, 2:00 pm, Career Services Library, Eustis Building

Post Baccalaureate Premedical Program

Bennington's Post baccalaureate Premedical Program provides an alternative to the usual options for college graduates who are interested in completing the premedical school curriculum. Bennington's program is completely integrated into the college's math and science curriculum. Post-bac students at Bennington encounter the same intellectual vitality, faculty attention and laboratory access as full time undergraduates.

Master of Arts in Teaching

The Center for Creative Teaching (CCT) at Bennington offers small classes, individualized faculty advising, and the opportunity for a self-directed, interdisciplinary education. The CCT offers two Master of Arts in Teaching programs: for candidates who seek certification and for teachers who hold certification.

7)
