WORKSHOP - TOMORROW - FINDING A JOB IN NON-PROFIT

Wednesday, October 24, 6:00 pm, Miller 8

Students interested in possibly pursuing careers in the non-profits are invited to come learn about career planning and job search strategies for the non-profit industry. Learn about the application timeline, necessary qualifications, and resources available to help you in your job search.

2)

INTERNSHIP INFORMATION MEETINGS EVERY FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Get started on your internship plans by attending an Internship Information Meeting. Learn about strategies for securing the internship you want and be introduced to the resources that can help you make it happen. Every Friday afternoon at 1:00 in the Career Services Library.

3)

NEED INTERNSHIP FUNDING?

Need internship funding? Consider the following:

-The Linda K. Cotter Internship Award Competition - Awards are need based and applicants must have a current year financial aid application at Colby. January awards range from $500-$1500. Competition for January awards is open to all sophomores, juniors, and seniors. The application deadline for LKC funding for January 2008 is November 1, 2007.

-The David Strage '82 International Internship - This award provides a stipend of $1,000 to defray the travel and/or living expenses of one Colby student each year pursuing an international internship. This is a competitive, merit-based award. Only one award will be given per year. The award is open to all majors. Internships may be completed in any professional career area and must be carried out in an international location. Priority will be given to applicants without previous international experience. The application deadline is November 1, 2007.

-The Medalie Family Entrepreneur Internship Fund - This fund provides a stipend of $1,000 to defray the travel and/or living expenses of one Colby student each year pursuing an unpaid internship with an entrepreneur. This is a competitive, merit-based award. Only one award will be given per year. The award is open to all majors. Internships may be completed in any professional career area but must be with a small, entrepreneurial organization or an individual. The application deadline is November 1, 2007. Applicants may use the award either for January or for the summer.

Additional details and application procedures/forms on these opportunities can be found at:

VANGUARD SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Vanguard, one of the world's largest investment management companies, has awarded over $160,000 to students through the Vanguard Scholarship Program and the Vanguard Women in Technology Scholarship Program over the past three years. The Vanguard Scholarship Program provides merit-based scholarships of up to $10,000 to minority students who demonstrate academic excellence and leadership potential and are entering their senior year of college during the 2008-2009 school year. The Vanguard Women in Technology Scholarship Program provides merit-based scholarships of up to $7,000. The scholarship was established to remove financial barriers for female students entering their senior year of college during the 2008-2009 school year who are majoring in computer science, computer engineering, web design, or related technical engineering disciplines.

Access the following link to learn more about these scholarship opportunities. The application deadline is November 30, 2007.

WANT TO LEARN MORE ABOUT THE LABOR MOVEMENT?

Why not spend a semester in New York City interning at a union or workers' center? Union Semester is an intensive semester-away program in which students come from across the U.S. to intern for a NYC labor organization and take courses in Labor Studies from the City University of New York, CUNY. The program is open to all undergraduates, recent graduates and graduate students in all majors. Applications for Spring 2008 are due November 15, 2007.

Internships include a wide range of activities at a diverse group of unions and community organizations. New York Union Semester is an excellent career opportunity for young people interested in working for social and economic justice. For more information and an application go to www.unionsemester.org

LOCAL INTERNSHIPS

Marden, Dubord, Bernier & Stevens, Waterville, ME

In the past a Colby Jan-Plan student has shadowed several of the firm's attorneys throughout the month gaining familiarity with the breadth of legal activities a Central Maine general law firm is involved in. Email Bob Marden at bmarden@gwi.net.

Hardy Girls Healthy Women, Waterville, ME

An internship at Hardy Girls would be assisting with the following tasks: maintaining and updating the website with current programming and news; assisting with direct mailings such as quarterly newsletters, major donor solicitations and organizational updates; and updating and maintaining the lending library. In addition, the intern would be welcome to assist with Hardy Girls programming such as Adventure Girls events, the Girls Groups, Girls Unlimited! Conferences, the film series, the summer golf tournament. Specific projects depend on the time of year that an intern is available. Taking into consideration the interests of the intern and the current need of Hardy Girls we're always able to match the intern with an enjoyable project. Email Megan Williams at info@hardygirlshealthywomen.org.

Maine Coalition on Smoking or Health, Augusta, ME

Assist the Health Policy Partners of Maine by compiling the latest research on obesity. HPP coordinates all statewide advocacy to reduce tobacco use/exposure and obesity in Maine. This position would be excellent experience for anyone who is considering a career in public policy or public health. MCSOH would be willing to work with student and advisors if course credit is desired. This is a great internship for anyone considering a Masters in Public Health or Masters in Public Policy. Email Becky Smith at bsmith@mcd.org.

Mahoosuc Guide Service-Maine, Newry, ME

Help run guide service which entails: caring for sled dogs, feeding, watering, scooping poop, packing food, gear for trips, cleaning gear after trips, meeting guests, cleaning guest bunkhouse, serving breakfast to clients in the bunkhouse, caring for retired dogs, helping with camp chores when on the trail such as cutting firewood, collecting fir boughs, washing dishes, making dog beds, etc. Learning how to run a dog team, snowmobile, snowshoe, cross country ski. Email Polly Mahoney at info@mahoosuc.com.
