

2008 Student Leadership Opportunities

Emerging Leaders Program

The Emerging Leaders Program (ELP) is designed to recognize and develop the leadership potential of first and second year students at Colby College. Through a series of workshops, the program will allow participants to develop new leadership skills, group dynamic skills, and civic engagement skills and become familiar with and discover their own leadership interests and styles.

Session Dates: 2/28, 3/6, 3/13, 3/20, 4/3, 4/10, 4/17
Thursdays 7-9 pm – Philson Lounge

First Year Class Council

The First Year Class Council is comprised of approximately 25 first year students who work together to provide the first year class with support, events, and leadership during your first year. They are charged with forming and maintaining class spirit, unity, and pride between all members of the class as well as making this first year a memorable one.

Session Dates: To be determined

Colby Outdoor Orientation Leaders

Deadline for applications is February 29 at 4:30 in the Campus Life Office. Interviews will be conducted on a rolling basis. All leaders will be required to participate in spring-time outdoor leader training sessions. Applications available on request!

Deadline is February 29 at 4:30 pm.

Colby Outdoor Leadership Development (COLD) Program

The COLD program is designed to provide students with a comprehensive immersion into outdoor leadership skills. Sessions will be experiential in nature requiring each participant to be actively engaged in class and the outdoors. If you are interested in being an outdoor orientation leader or increase your skills for summer jobs in the outdoors this is the program for you.

Session Dates: 2/20, 27 - 3/5,12,19 - 4/2,9,16,23,30
Wednesdays 7-10 pm - Olin 1

For more information please contact:

Jonathan Milne
Director of Outdoor Education
jdMilne@colby.edu